

Remote Road Traffic Collision Management & Casualty Extrication

Rating ★★★★★

The Remote Road Traffic Collision Management and Casualty Extrication course is taught by award-winning vehicle extrication specialists.

It provides training in scene management and extrication of a casualty in the event of a traffic collision, using minimal equipment in a remote location.

Course content

To train security and medical personnel to manage the scene and the extrication of a casualty in a road traffic collision using minimal equipment in a remote location.

The syllabus includes:

- Casualty extrication equipment
- Scene safety & management
- Systematic approach to casualty extrication
- Vehicle cutting techniques
- Improvisation skills
- Practical exercises - A Plan, B Plan, vehicle on roof
- Scenario-based practical skills training

Duration: 1 day

Entry Criteria: Medical course/qualification (Team Medic Course, FREC 3 / FREC 4 Course, FPOS Basic or Intermediate, HSE FAW, Paramedic, EMT, Doctor, Nurse).

Certification: Prometheus Medical certificate

“Many thanks for a great course. Mark was incredible and really bought the course to life.”

Student Testimonial