

First Responder Emergency Care (FREC) 4

Rating ★★★★★

The FREC Level 4 Course enables students to attain the knowledge and practical competencies needed to deal with a range of pre-hospital emergency and urgent situations.

This course is designed as the next step for those who have completed the QA Level 3 Certificate in First Response Emergency Care (RQF).

Course content

The aim of the FREC Level 4 Course is to equip students with the knowledge and practical competencies needed to deal with a range of pre-hospital emergency and urgent situations.

PROMETHEUS
MEDICAL

The syllabus includes:

- Initial patient assessment
- Physiological observations
- Anatomy and physiology
- Heart disease
- Electrocardiogram application and monitoring
- Managing a patient's airway
- Medical gases
- Thoracic trauma
- Sepsis
- Maternity care
- Respiratory disorders and infections
- Mechanisms of injury and kinetics
- Triage
- Full body and limb immobilisation
- Sexual assault
- Major incidents
- Psychosocial development in children
- Emergency care for sick and injured children
- Mental health crisis
- Assisting the clinician with clinical interventions

Duration: 5 days

Entry Criteria: The next step for those who have completed the QA Level 3 Certificate in First Response Emergency Care, FREC 4 is aimed at not only industry, emergency services (police and Fire) and public sector companies and their employees, but for individuals who aspire to a more advanced level of emergency care knowledge and practical skills set.

Certification: Qualsafe Awards (QA) Level 4 Certificate in First Response Emergency Care (RFQ) - this qualification is valid while the student maintains a continuing professional development (CPD) portfolio and has attended annual refresher training (ILS)

“After 20 years of medical courses, this course and trainer were the best I have come across.”

Student Testimonial